About This Software

Emoto is a fast 3D animation tool, easy to use, fast and cost-effective, using VR devices (currently only support Htc Vive) to create character animation, and make characters in the VR to become lively and interesting, so as to quickly complete an animated film.

Emoto has its own repository. You don't need any prior knowledge of 3D content creation. You just need to select the scenes and characters, play them, think about the script you want to play and complete the animated story.

In addition, to make your art creation process more unique and creative, we offer free SDK tools that will support importing your own scenes, characters (with expressions, gestures, and custom actions), props and effects.

Emoto not only can create 3D animation video quickly, but also has professional video production function. We divide Emoto into two modules: VR game and Editor mode.

-VR game has the following functions?

Using custom role actions (requiring SDK plug-ins to change character default animation)

Third person role mobility

Use particle effects

Camera effect of DOF and FOV

Stable shooting effect

Fixed or free variety shooting mode.

Export HD 720P/1080P video

Export 360 panoramic video
Export HD 2K/4K/8K video (Free Edition does not support this function)
To export the role recordings to FBX format (Free Edition does not support this function)

In addition, editor mode can even be used without the need for VR devices, as long as the software has a good video archive imported into the software, you can continue to create them without VR devices.

-Editor mode has the following functions?

Video screen editing (color effects, glow effects, environmental shadow effects, depth of field, time effects, etc.)

Multiple video.Mp4 batch merge export (Free Edition supports up to 3 video synthesis)

Role and scene replacement

Motion capture (requires Perception Neuron Motion Complement system hardware to support, Free Edition does not support this function)

Facial capture (requires general WebCAM external hardware support, Free Edition does not support this function)

Provide free open source SDK plug-ins to import their roles, scenes, props, special effects resources.

Currently only supports Unity3D 5.6.1.P1 version.

B. INTRODUCTION

There are many creatures of the All Father's devising that came to Ahrde even before he laid his wards upon the world. They were great and small and dwelt throughout the Ahrde, much as they still do. These are the Val-Eahrakun, among them were the Connauking, which in the Vulgate or Common tongue translates to "Elemental Lord." These creatures are not quite deities but not quite mortal, rather they reside in that world betwixt and between the worshipped and worshipping. The Connauking existed before the accident of the All Father's "making" and have the capacity to tear them apart.

Many ages ago, before the Frost Lord, Vaul, who embodied the brethren, a Rock Lord who called him a residence. Vaul was in sleep, and ice accompanied the destruction of winter followed could meld rock and stone together.

At the bidding of Vaul, Arrar the Blighted Scream, what is lost to the histories, but in Mount Utring. Within the mountains for the Frost Lord. Much to Utring and settled within.

The Frost Lord blanketed his for Vaul was and will always be. Runes, having those spells of walk the outer and inner pillars to the planes of frost and crept up the mountain side made the whole more livable for many ages. Vaul lived the world, but understood the fate.

C. FOR THE CASTLE KEEPER

Of Banishment and Blight takes place entirely within the environs of Mount Utring. As with the previous adventure, the characters are alone and have no recourse to aid should they need or desire it. They are very far from the confines of man, elf, or dwarf and the only safe harbors are hidden and difficult to access. The characters should understand that they are alone and far from home with few allies to help them. They can, if they are clever enough, use the villages around Mount Utring as rally points.

The adventure is fairly straightforward to have to sneak up through one of the many brute force. But no matter the same location - facing the keep in mind the Frost Lord no point does he raise by his minions. The CK, who characters at any available the carnage of the battle. Role play any intelligent raid of the Frost Lord, who even curse the failures of. Finally when the characters describe his extreme damage they may have done.

D. INVOLVING THE PLAYERS

Although this adventure links with the "A" series, there is no truly compelling reason for the characters to visit the location in A5 to that of A6. The Castle Keeper has a suitable method of bringing them to Mount Utring if they mention towards the end of A5 do not suffice to get them to go forward.

The preferred methods are as follows:

1. The characters desire to learn the spell which freed those trapped in the gems located on Mount Utring is in possession of...
2. The characters learn of the Frost Lord's magical items and that he has knowledge and be able to determine the Opening's parts.
3. The ogre magi mentioned in setting an old score with another if there is no connection with A...

1. The characters learn from a person, of the Frost Lord's horn it that the Frost Lord, if properly dead, and even gives the aft...

E. THE VILLAGERS

Across the broken one massive outcrops of tundra. This 2000 mass of huge dead its flanks, dumped ledges, into the ravines and crevices and all across its surface. Even when the season is warm these thunderous clouds dump snow across Mount Utring's flanks. Though the mountain itself is locked in winter's embrace, the land around is not. Here lies the lacerated landscape of the Blighted Scream, where temperatures vary with the season, but where it is never as cold as Mount Utring. The weather that comes from the
